The Jury's Statement

The powerfully knurled surface gives »Drop« an impressively distinctive feel and a striking sculptural presence. The combination of solid brass, subtle dual-color finish, and durable inner workings demonstrates stylish elegance and strong functionality. Especially in contemporary interiors, this project sets an inspiring accent and stands out through its strategically refined execution in an exemplary way.

Originality matters

Originality is a vital aspect of any form of creative expression, be it art, literature, music, or any other field. It refers to the quality of being unique and innovative, and it is the cornerstone of creative work that sets it apart from the rest. Originality is what makes an idea or work stand out and captivate its audience, and it is what distinguishes great works of art from mere imitations.
